

EDUCATIONAL OPTIONS FOR GLADSTONE HIGH SCHOOL TAG STUDENTS IN:

Yearbook

Standard practices provided to all students in this course that address accelerated level and rates of learning:

- Open-ended instruction
- Develop writing and thinking skills
- Opportunities for critical thinking and writing skills
- Activities that extend beyond the regular school day
- Through projects and critiques, students will practice communication and leadership skills
- Students will explore design, photography, and writing through personal creative expression and through analysis of student works

Other options your TAG student may take advantage of in this course that address their accelerated level and rates of learning:

- Open-ended writing assignment offer students the flexibility to work at their level
- Students offered higher-level reading materials relevant to the class as free reading
- Individual modification to all major writing assignments that encourage advanced learning
- Writing extensions
- Optional student-directed research opportunities outside of class time
- Individual modifications to all major writing assignments that encourage advanced learning

Please contact the Yearbook teacher if your student wants to participate in any of these options.

Options not mentioned above that you believe would benefit your TAG Student in this course: Please discuss this with your student. If you would like to suggest some additional options, please print out this form, write in your suggestions, and return it to the GHS TAG coordinator. Your student's teacher will receive a copy of your suggestions and then contact you to discuss the proposed ideas.

PLEASE NOTE: If, at any time, you feel your student is not being appropriately challenged in this course, please immediately contact the teacher to discuss your student's needs and possible strategies to provide a more challenging set of activities.