Gladstone Clothes Closet, Food Pantry set summer hours

Between June 19 and July 31, the Gladstone Community Clothes Closet will shift to summer hours, from 3 to 5 p.m. on Thursdays. The Food Pantry will be open this summer on the same schedule, providing food items to families in need.

Youths needing clothes are welcome to visit the Clothes Closet during open hours. Current donation needs are used or new shoes and new packages of youth socks, underwear, and diapers. [Please deliver donations only during operating hours.]

The new clothes closet on the Gladstone High campus provides free clothing to youths from birth to age 21. It is located on the north side of the GHS campus, accessible from the fire lane off Nelson Lane. The Gladstone Food Pantry is located next door to the Clothes Closet.

For back-to-school clothing needs, regular Clothes Closet hours will resume August 7: Thursdays from 3 to 5 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon.

For information, to donate or to volunteer, call LaRae Applebee at 503.758.4411.
